ABOUT US

“Quality you can feel, comfort you can wear”

We represent the luxurious brand of uniforms. At Unifab, we take pride in crafting uniforms that are extremely comfortable and equally appealing.

Quality is something we never compromise with and hence, bring to you the best of the corporate, Industrial, and hotel uniforms that can match with the latest trends. Our uniforms uphold the most desired parameters of tear and shrinkage resistance, colorfastness, uniform dyeing, etc., and hence have got the best of the market demand with high-cost value.

OUR SPECIALITY

Experienced personnel and dedicated staff working on client requirements.

In-house fabrication with advanced machines and trending techniques.

Best production standards ensured with strict quality measures.

Well-knit customized uniforms and promotional clothing.

High-quality products at competitive rates.

A vast range to select for every industry.

Timely production and delivery.

We have put together our years of experience, expertise, market know-how, and creativity to bring out the distinguishing mark for ourselves as the prominent manufacturers of uniforms in India. It's nearly two decades since we have started our establishment. Right from 2001, we are successfully serving our clients who come from different domains like hotels, restaurants, colleges, pubs, corporate, institutes, industries, etc. Matching up with traditional requirements and sophisticated trends of the modern-day, we have incessantly stood up to the expectations of our esteemed clients every time, thereby gearing up the customer satisfaction ratio to 100%.

The core strength of our company lies in its team that is not only reliable but also skillful and meticulous.

Our team as a whole is a combination of experienced professionals, semi-skilled employees as well as technical and non-technical staff.

We have designing and stitching experts, skilled quality testers along with the best warehousing, packaging, and delivery departments.

It's the sincere and collective efforts of all of them that enable us to produce qualitative garments and suffice our production and sourcing needs within the time lines promised. We value the proficiency of our employees and impart regular training sessions to enhance their skills.
